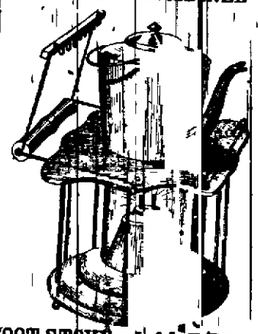
ARNOLD'S COMBINED



FOOT-STOVE, LANTERN,
AND NURSE-LAMP.

ALBERT NOYES having purchased the exclusive right for manufacturing in Penobscot county the above valuable invention is now prepared to offer them to the public.
As a FOOT STOVE, it answers an excellent purpose as it can be sufficiently heated in less than one minute to warm and dry the feet in the coldest winter weather, and will be found to be an indispensable article in travelling. It is heated by an oil alcohol or fluid lamp the flame of which is protected from every external object
As a LANTERN it answers all the usual purposes and is less liable to be blown out or broken and can be used as a nurse lamp with equal advantage
As a NURSE LAMP and in case of sickness, it is of great advantage in keeping drink or medicines warm besides giving the light desired and for cooking in small quantities. For heating tea, &c. it will be found very convenient a quart of water can be boiled in fifteen minutes and a pint iron heat in the same length of time
In fact the various purposes to which this neat apparatus can be put may be readily ascertained by every one. No further description is required, as no one can misunderstand its general utility. To say anything more respecting its merits would be but to a hundred purposes would just be telling what our readers from all see at once for themselves

BOSTON
IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS.—The subscriber (late Agent of the U S Patent Office under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages in applying for patents, superior to those offered inventors by others has made arrangements whereby on application prepared and conducted by him THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty as paid back by others) will be remitted to him in case of failure to obtain a patent and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection
This agency is not only the largest in New England but by through it inventors have advantages for securing patents or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by if not the measurably superior to any which can be offered them elsewhere The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THIS PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY he would add that he has abundant reason to believe and can prove that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate
The numerous practice of the subscriber during twenty years past has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents These besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works afford him unusual facilities for obtaining full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe rendering it unnecessary for inventors to differ superior claims for protection to their inventions
Caveat Specification Assignment and all papers and Drawings relative to procuring patents in this and foreign countries prepared and advice rendered on legal and equitable questions respecting invention and infringement of patents All necessary information given to Washington to procure a patent and the latest decisions thereon and where saved inventors

The Republicans of Bangor are requested to meet at the usual places of voting in their respective Wards on SATURDAY evening, March 8th, to nominate candidates for Ward Officers

Per order Republican City Committee.

March, 1856

"SAVE ME FROM MY FRIENDS."—It must be confessed that the managing politicians of the hunker democracy in this city, and the Straitout leaders who go with them, have a very unhandsome and cavalier mode of treating the candidates whom they put in nomination for office. That week, under the guise of a "citizens' movement, they engineered two gentlemen of their own selection, into the candidacy for the Mayoralty and Judgeship—nominated them by an exclusive party vote, and with a great flourish of trumpets declared their intention to stick by and elect them, or do their best for it, as any honorable politicians would do. Under the expectation of ordinarily decent treatment, and after being solicited to stand, and (as we still believe) having a party pledge executed to face by them, the gentlemen were induced to accept the nominations, or, at least, they did not decline them. Having thus set them up before the people, by a movement which was in reality a party movement, common fairness—even common decency—dictated that the managers should go to work and sustain them—and every call to the voters to their support, and carry their names to the ballot boxes with such strength as they might.

Before two days had elapsed, however, it appeared that the nominations might not be quite so strong as the leaders had imagined. There was some dissatisfaction expressed among their own voters, as there frequently is to a party nomination—but no more, probably, than might have been quieted by the earnest and proper efforts which it was the duty of the leaders to make, if they meant to act honorably by their candidates. But they made no efforts whatever to sustain the men whom they had thus placed prominently before the public. At the very first note of opposition—at the first symptom of popular revolt—not among the Republicans,—they flatly turned tail, and left their principal candidate without any apparent support whatever—so that in common regard for his own self-respect, he was constrained to withdraw his name from the canvass.

A new caucus was then called for last evening, and another gentleman, whom they will perhaps name; before 9 I get to the polls, in case they should happen to think of somebody who might be more available, was put in nomination for Mayor.

Their original candidate for the Judgeship was also treated in the same unhandsome manner. There was found to be some talk against him by the friends of disappointed candidates, and although he could not be driven to decline previous to the second caucus, it was determined to abandon him, and the gentleman elected another man before the caucus met, and had their votes all printed in advance for his nomination. Still part of them were actually put in the hat before Mr. Rawson's declination. Of course, his first card late could stand it no longer, and had to come down.

The second caucus nominated Leonard March, Esq. for Mayor, and Hon. J. A. Peirce, for Police Judge, having locally had Major Mills and Mr Rawson upon the shelf.

If the last nominated candidates do not find themselves treated in the same manner, upon any symptoms of opposition, it will be perhaps from want of time to dominate a third set.

Future candidates for office on the other side they will learn to look out sharp for their backers, before they enter on the course.

The Journal, with its usual contemptible course of argument, being unable to find any assailable point in the character of the Republican candidate for Mayor, resorts to a mean and miserable attempt to create a prejudice against him, because he is the owner of a small portion of the Kenduskeag shore line, which, as a highly beneficial improvement for the city, and without detriment in any way to the public interests or the public treasury, is to be bridged over to the custom house foundation, between the new Market House and Kenduskeag Bridge. This improvement is to be made in conformity with a plan which has been settled upon in the public mind ever since the custom house was located, and is universally looked upon as a desirable thing in all respects. The Journal talks about the expense of supporting these bridges after they are built by the riparian proprietors, but it says not a word about the large amount of property which is to be added to the resources for taxation by the improvement. The lands themselves, if unimproved in value as the Journal says they will be, must pay increased taxes—even while lying open, and as soon as the shores are lined with blocks of stores as they will speedily be, to the value perhaps of $100,000 the taxes on them will be large and the city treasury will be a gainer rather than a loser by the whole operation. The Journal will find it a hard matter to convince any intelligent man that the proposed improvement will not in reality be a great benefit and convenience every way to the city. Further than this, the Journal knows that the improvement will be made under any administration of the city government which may be in power. Some of the most wealthy and influential men in the Journal's own party, are much more largely interested in the property than Mr. Bowman is, and they already procured authority from the Legislature with the approbation of the City Council to build the bridges. The matter is determined upon—the Journal's political friends are as strongly pledged to it as anybody—and its present talk is all gas to operate upon the municipal election, respited to in the absence of any better capital.

To the Editor of the Bangor Daily Whig and Courier.

DEAR SIR.—I notice in your paper of to-day what purports to be a publication of a letter addressed by me to the Chairman of the Republican City Committee, but which has been so altered as not to convey the meaning I intended.

When I expressed my appreciation of the "honorable sentiments" of my friends, (which you have made to read "honorable sentiments") my words and not your conveyed what I intended—and when at the close I expressed the sentiment that the present "demands of the united effort that those principles may triumph which will secure human freedom and human welfare" my language was what I intended, for I never fully believe that our principles are not only designed to promote "human freedom" but by rebuking and restraining vice, will also promote "human welfare," even in our own community.

When one year ago in the face of a most bitter opposition I was elected to the office I now hold and entered upon its duties, two courses were open before me,—the one to act the "politician"—weigh every act in the balances and secure popularity,—the other, to pursue a course dictated by a sense of duty and a determined purpose to secure, guard and promote all the interests entrusted to me—however the public interest might interfere with the interests or wishes of individuals,—and thereby secure personal popularity, and a decline of popular favor. With a full view of the consequences I made my election and have endeavored without "fear or favor" to follow my choice.

I am not therefore surprised at the result, but shall cheerfully wait until a calmer public judgment shall award the present Administration such a place in the history of our City as it may justly deserve.

I will heartily support the nominees of the Caucus last evening, and should they be elected as I have no doubt they will, they will receive my cordial co-operation.

I will freely accord you the right to "ignore" the present City Government, but I protest against any communication of mine being subjected to the revision of one who chooses to occupy that position.

I send you herewith a copy of my letter and ask such act of justice that it may be published, as it is, together with this communication.

Very Respectfully Yours,

J T K HAYWARD.

Bangor, March 7, 1856.

To Wm Boyd, Esq., Chairman of the Republican City Committee.

DEAR SIR.—I have reason to believe that some of my personal friends will wish to have my name at the Caucus to be held this evening as a candidate for re-election.

Allow me to say through you to any such, that while I fully appreciate their honorable sentiments, I wish to withdraw my name entirely, as a candidate. The present is no time to urge personal preferences, but demands of all united effort that those principles may triumph which will secure human freedom and human welfare.

Very Respectfully Yours

J T K HAYWARD

Bangor, March 6, 1856

We cheerfully give place to the foregoing communication from Mayor Hayward. The first discrepancy to which he alludes between the published letter and the original, was entirely a mistake of the compositor,—the letter being set up in haste at 11 o'clock at night, and not revised by the copy. In regard to the change of language at the close, we freely acknowledge that it was done hastily and inconsiderately with the idea simply of avoiding what appeared an unobserved repetition of words, but without the slightest intention of changing the sense in an objectionable manner.

In regard to the present City Government, we have always defended its honesty, integrity and economy, and now repeat our belief in these qualities, and anything which may have been said in our paper recently, which is construed into ignoring that government, was had simply to prevent other political opponents from selecting their own ground of attack, and attempting to charge upon the Republican party the errors and misdoings of the late City Marshal.

E. gale, got in contact with the brig Grandee, of Brooklyn Me, from Savannah for New York, and had her bobstay, bow sprit, and bulwarks carried away, also sprung a leak of 2500 strokes per hour. The Grandee also sprung a leak of 2000 strokes per hour, when 5 days out from Sagua, and after the collision was reported in a sinking condition. The Tiger lay by her that night and the next day, but the succeeding night lost sight of her. The Tiger lost half of her deck load of molasses. The Grandee arrived since at New York. She reports that Mr Tibbets, the first officer, and Samuel Littlefield of Trenton Me, were knocked overboard from the Grandee at the time of the collision.

Republicanism at the West.

DAVENPORT, Iowa, Feb. 26, 1856.

MESSRS. EDITORS.—As the time for electing a Chief Magistrate at this Union is approaching, perhaps a few "items" concerning the Republican party of this State, may not be uninteresting to your readers. At a meeting of the citizens of the State of Iowa, assembled at the Capital in Iowa City, on the 22d inst., for the purpose of organizing a Republican Party, the following platform was unanimously adopted.

United by common resolve to maintain Right against Wrong and believing in the determination of a virtuous and intelligent people, to sustain justice, we declare,

1. That Governments are instituted among men to secure the inalienable rights of Life, Liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

2. That the mission of the Republican party, is to maintain the liberties of the People, the Sovereignty of the States, and the Perpetuity of the Union.

3. That under the Constitution, and by right, Freedom alone is National.

4. That the Federal Government being one of limited powers derived wholly from the Constitution, its agents should construe those powers strictly, and never exercise a doubtful authority—always independent and dangerous.

5. That it is the opinion of Jeffersonian and early policy were carried out, the Federal Government would relieve itself of all responsibility for the existence of Slavery, which Republicanism must uphold, and means it shall go, and that regarding Slavery in the South as a local institution, beyond her reach, and above our authority, but recognizing it as a vital concern of every citizen, in its relation to the Nation, we will oppose its spread and demand that all National Territory shall be free.

6. That the Repeal of the Missouri Compromise, and the refusal of the Slave Power to abide by the principle on which that repeal was professedly based, make the National Domain the battle ground between Freedom and Slavery, and while Republicans stand on the national basis, and will ever manifest and maintain a national spirit, they will shrink from no conflict, and shirk no responsibility on this issue.

7. That the Slave Power, the present national Administration and its adherents having violated that policy, and this principle on which it is based, by disregard of the will of its own profession, by an invasion of State and personal rights, and by breaking solemn covenants, has forced upon the country the issue, whether Freedom shall be limited to the Free States or Slavery to the Slave States, and under that issue absorbing shall be paramount.

Resolved, That firm, consistent and patriotic course pursued by our Republican members of the present Congress, during the arduous and protracted struggle for the Speakership, meets with our cordial approval, and that we recognize in Hon N P Banks, jr., a statesman of matured abilities, a Republican of reliable character, and we hail his election as a proud triumph of those great principles of human liberty, which laid the foundation of our American Government.

Resolved, That we deeply sympathize with the Free State men of Kansas, in their struggles against Border Ruffianism, and that while we tender them our hearty sympathy, we will sustain them with the requisite material aid.

Resolved, That we recommend the speedy admission of the delegate to a seat in Congress, and of their State when conformed into the Union.

Of the Convention, the Gazette says

"There were there 64 Delegates from Dallas, Cerro Gordo and other far distant counties, many of them having traveled from 100 to 140 miles. The greatest enthusiasm marked the proceedings, and the utmost unanimity prevailed upon the great question for which we had all assembled. Scores of speeches were made, all pointing at the great issue, and every one of them marked by ability. Men accustomed to attend political gatherings, and who had assembled in Conventions in Eastern States remarked, that they never witnessed such a manifestation of talent. During the afternoon, one man after another took the floor in favor of the limitation of slave territory, sundered the ties that bound them to the falsely called Democratic party, and gave in his allegiance to the Republican party. It was an experienced meeting, and their hearts briefly, terse—experience in the school of Lycoflocosm.

The Committee on nominations reported a State and National ticket, viz: Four Presidential Electors, eight Delegates to the National Convention, and eight alternates. A Secretary of State, Auditor, and Attorney General. It was the largest Convention that ever assembled in the "Hawkeye State." The happiest feeling prevailed, and men felt as though they had indeed assembled for a great and noble purpose, and that their constituents who had entrusted to them a question of such vital importance, expected of them that they would do their work satisfactorily.

A platform was formed upon which every man opposed to the extension of Slavery could stand.

The recent troubles in Kansas have caused many distortions in the Democratic Party, in this State, to no small benefit to the Republican Party. It would have been a matter of policy for the "Border Ruffians" to have ceased their operations in Kansas until after the pensuing fall election.

The bogus Democracy met in Convention at Iowa City, and nominated a State and National ticket. A Dubuque Editor asserts that their candidate for Secretary of State, is a member of, and in "full communion with, the Know Nothing party."

In Chicago, where there are seven daily papers printed, six support the Republican nominees, viz: Democrat, and Dem. Press, (Soft,) Journal, (Straight Whig,) Tribune, (Rep.) Native Citizen, (American,) and Staats Zeitung, German (Soft.)

The Times, Douglas organ, raves dreadfully at the course taken by the other journals, and says they will repent of it when it is too late—perhaps so.

The weather has been very cold with us the winter That venerable personage, the "Oldest Inhabitant," has been consulted, and he says it has been the coldest winter he ever experienced in Iowa. Quite a number of men have perished from cold on the prairies within fifty miles of this city within the last two months. As the stage going north from Dubuque came to the tavern—the stopping place on the route, the landlord on coming out found the driver, frozen to death—sitting in an upright position on the box—and also two men in the stage. This information which I get from a country paper, is no doubt correct—the event occurred in January. Yours, &c. H. B. M.

LEGISLATURE OF MAINE.

TUESDAY March 4

SENATE. The order from the House calling upon the Judiciary Committee to communicate some information in regard to the "Report of the Commissioners to revise the Statutes" was, on motion of Mr Barnes laid on the table

Passed to be engrossed.—An act to incorporate the Universalist Parsonage Proprietary, in Belfast; an act to incorporate the Master, Warden and Members of the St John's Lodge; an act to incorporate the Universalist Parsonage Association at Belfast.

House. Bill to incorporate the Maine Gold Mining Company, was taken up and passed to be engrossed.

Mr Shubby of Amherst, offered an order, directing the Committee on the Judiciary to report what action, if any, they have taken on the report of the Commissioners to revise the laws.

Mr Foster of E. Machias, moved to lay the order on the table. It might be construed as an imputation on the Committee.

The question was twice put on laying on the table, and less than a quorum voted. A recess of the House showed 82 members present, more than a quorum. On motion of Mr Barker, the yeas and nays were ordered, and the motion to lay on the table was negatived. Yeas 37, nays 40.

Passed to be engrossed.—Bill in relation to the elections of Judges of Probate, Registers of Probate, Sheriffs, and justices of Municipal and Police Courts, authorizing John N. Swasey to extend his wharf in Bucksport.

On motion of Mr. Howes of New Sharon,

Ordered, That the Governor be respectfully requested to transmit to the House of Representatives any communications he may have received from the citizens of Kansas or the authorities thereof, provided, the transmission of such documents be not at his opinion incompatible with the public interest.

RADICALLY DEVELOPMENTS. Our business community was taken by surprise on Tuesday of last week by the news of the disappearance of Mr. Alonzo Ellis, who had been doing business in this city for a year or two past as a butcher and provision dealer. In addition to his liabilities for borrowed money, which are represented to be legion, a series of forgeries have come to light which for audacity and rascality entitle him to almost as high a niche of infamy as was ever attained by the prince of forgers—Monroe Edwards himself.

We are unable to give the particulars in detail of the monetary transactions,—in fact, almost every hour furnishes some additional fact to the sum total of rascality, if it shall ever finally be made up.

It has been apparent for some months that Ellis was hard pushed for means to carry on his business, and a large proportion of the business men of Augusta have been in the habit of accommodating him with temporary loans in every variety of way, without suspicion of his honesty or solvency. Many of these persons were at last victimized by him. But his chief mode of operations has been to forge the names of responsible parties to his paper, and thereby obtain discounts in the various banks in this city and neighboring towns. Sometimes he would obtain genuine signatures in addition to the false ones, and thus strengthen the credit of his paper at the banks. The names thus forged, so far as we learn, have been those of his own father, Joshua Ellis, Jas Sherman, Jr. Nath't Dyer, and Samuel Clark, of Sidney, and Asa Williams of Augusta. We understand his operations have been with the State, Freeman's and Granite Banks of this city, the Northern and American of Hallowell, the Waterville Banks, and the Canton Bank of China.

The whole amount of his liabilities, as ascertained, is about $16,000—most of it raised on forged paper.

As an instance of the coolness and audacity of the man, it is stated that some months since Ellis took a note of $1000 to Mr. Sherman, representing it as the same which Mr. S. had previously signed with him, and which he had cancelled. Mr S took care of what he supposed to be his own signature, and of course had no further concern in regard to the matter. It now turns out that the original note is still in the Augusta Bank unpaid, and that the paper from which Mr S without examination had torn his name, had been fraudulently substituted by Ellis.

Another story is related. It is said that on the stamping of his disappearance he borrowed two hundred dollars of one of his customers who called into his shop to purchase some meat for dinner. Upon receiving a check for the amount, he took a fine piece of beef to the house of his obliging customer, and by some plausible and pathetic appeals induced his lady to lend him another hundred.

Nothing has been heard from him since his disappearance, and it is suspected that he is quite on the neighborhood concealed, as he has yet had no opportunity to get away undiscovered.—Augusta Banner

RAILWAY WIT.—Among the jokes which have been got off during the detentions occasioned by the deep snow is the following clipped from a Vermont paper.—

"Madam," said a conductor, a day or two since, "your boy can't pass at half fare—he's too large." "He may be too large now," replied the woman who had the boy in charge, "but he was small enough when we started."

The above dialogue was overheard on one of the trains of the Rutland and Burlington Railroad. The joke may be appreciated when it is known that the train had been delayed all night at a by station.

FARM RUM. We are informed that intoxicating liquors are openly sold at the two taverns in Merrick, two men from Avon passed through Norridgewock on Saturday before last, in a state of intoxication, or their way home. One of them was so drunk that he tumbled out of the sleigh near the Court House, and could not get up, walk or stand.

It is said that a lawyer in this county has knocked down no less than within a few months.

There are cases besides the above in this county deserving the consideration of such men as talk temperance and vote free rum.—Skowhegan Clarion.

FIRE. Last Wednesday afternoon a fire broke out in the upper part of a work shop in rear of the Flour Mill, and before the flames could be subdued the whole of the second story with the roof was demolished. The building was owned by R. H Gardiner, Esq., who was partially insured. It was occupied by Messrs. Wm B Wood, Azmi Jewell, J Merrill, and others, who lost their tools and large quantities of finished lumber.—Gardiner Transcript

A JEALOUS DOG.—The following singular story is related by Judge Haliburton, in his recent work, entitled "Nature and human Nature."

We cannot readily question the probability of a story thus authenticated:—

"Last summer my dog Sam went to George's Island. Take it for granted you know it. It is a small island, situated in the centre of the harbor of Halifax, has a powerful battery on it, and barracks for the accommodation of troops. There was a company of my regiment stationed there at the time. I took thither Newfoundland dog and a small terrier, called Tim, in the boat with me. The latter was a very active little fellow the General had given me a few weeks before. He was sinful, as the phrase goes, in the matter of jealousy, and would not associate with him at all, if he ever took any liberty, he turned on him and punished him severely. This however he did not do in my presence, as he knew I would not suffer it, and, therefore, when they became accompanied me in my walks, the big dog contented himself with treating the other with perfect indifference and contempt. Upon this occasion, Tim would lay down in the boat and pretend to sleep, while the little dog, who was full of life and animation, and fond of fun, if he did not know what it was to sleep, would sit up, looked over the gunwale, and seemed to enjoy the thing uncommonly. He watched the motions of the men, as if he understood what was required of them, and was ready to obey the word for a half ticket, should acquit themselves properly.

"He knew," said I, "it was when I said the dog watch."

"Very good, said he, but long before all the time as it he thought the intermission very bad.

After having made my inspection, I returned to the boat, for the purpose of running to the town, which I missed the terrier. Tim was close at my heels, and when I looked for the other, wagged his tail and looked up in my face, as if he would say, 'never mind the foolish dog. I am here, and that is enough for me. Is there anything you want me to do?'

After calling in vain, I went back to the barracks, and inquired of the men for Sam, but no one appeared to have seen him or missed him.

After perambulating the little island in vain, I happened to ask the sentry if he saw where he was.

"Yes sir," said he, "he is in the beach."

"Buried in the beach," said I, with great anger, 'who dared to kill him?' Tell me, sir, immediately."

"That large dog did it, sir. He came down to the shore by playing with the sentry, pretending to crouch and then turn round and then retreating, and coaxing him to follow him, and when he got near to the beach he sprung on him in an instant, and then scratched a hole in the beach and buried him, pressing him up with the gravel. After that he went into the water, and with his paws washed himself, took himself, and went up to the barracks. You will find the terrier just down there, sir, and poor little fellow, he is very much hurt."

And sure enough there was the watched fellow, quite dead and yet warm.

In the meantime, Thunder, who had seen us proceedings from a distance, as soon as he saw the body exhumed, felt as if the court-martial holding over himself, where he had himself for several days thought the affair had blown over, approached me anxiously and cautiously, as he should be apprehended and convicted. I was unwilling to lose both my dogs, and obliged to overlook it, and take him back to my confidence."

interposed and partially quieted them, but a few still held out. A large number of st had left the College, and others had been pended, so that only 30 or 40 retain their con-

A company of fifty filibusters arrived here

TESTIMONY FROM MAINE

Capt. Daniel Abbott, of Brooklin, Maine July 16, 1853, says: "I was taken sick ... one year ago last April, upon my passage from Havana to Charleston S C. At the latter place I ... took medicine and procured a physician, but for ... days could obtain no relief, no sleep or appetite. At last taking up a newspaper having ... advertisement of "Hoofland's German Bitters" in it I sent for some immediately. This was about 10 o clock, at 11 o clock I took the first dose, ... and another at 6 o clock. The effect was so rapid on me that I had a good appetite for supper, and rested well that night and the next day found me ... a man. I have not been without your medicine since, having been shipping between Baltimore, Charleston, and the West India Islands ever since. I have now given up going to sea and reside in this place where you should have an agency, as you could sell large quantities of it."

Jos E Hall & Co., Presque Isle, Aroostook County, Maine, April 24, 1854, say: "We herewith send you a certificate of a cure performed by the use of one bottle of the German Bitters. We think Mr. Clark to be a man of veracity, and have no doubt of the truth of his story."

Messrs. Jos E Hall & Co—Gentlemen:—In answer to your inquiries I will state that my daughter, aged about 19 years, has been complaining of a pain in the side for six or seven years, and about the first of January last was taken down and confined to her bed. The pain in her side was very severe, besides being troubled with pains between her shoulders and in her breast. ... Number of cures performed by Hoofland's German Bitters, I was induced to try them in her case, and sent to your store and purchased one bottle. She had taken it but a few days when she began to improve, and now, after taking only one bottle, she is enjoying better health than she has for years. She feels no pain in her side or in any part of her body. Words cannot express her cure entirely to the German Bitters.

WILLIAM CLARK.
Salmon Brook, Aroostook Co, Me

You should bear in mind that these Bitters are entirely vegetable, thereby possessing advantages over most of the preparations recommended for similar diseases.

Purifying the Blood, removing all diseases arising from the Impurities of Mercury, exposure and improper diet, or the abstruse constitutional disease arising from an impure state of the Blood, and the only reliable and effectual known remedy for the cure of Scrofula, Salt Rheum, Scald head, Ulcers, Diseases of the Throat and Legs, Pains and Swellings of the Bones, Tetter, Pimples on the Face and all scaly Eruptions of the Skin.

It is gratifying to the proprietor of these medicines to be able to state that it is now nearly three years since they were first introduced, during which time they have been extensively used in various parts of the United States, and have given to patient and physician the highest degree of satisfaction in the various cases in which they have been employed, whether in town, country, hospital or private practice, they have invariably given the most decided and unequivocal satisfaction, and produced the most salutary and beneficial effects. Numerous letters have been received from the most distinguished physicians in the country, and from the professors of several medical colleges recommending in the highest terms the value of these medicines and their superiority over all other preparations for such complaints as the proprietor has recommended. Numerous preparations of Sarsaparilla and Buchu, and various modes of preparing them have been given out, all which of course will differ according to the mode of preparation which each individual may adopt.

These medicines require considerable care in the preparation, and the employment of different menstrua is necessary in order to take up the extractive matters, and in consequence are most frequently improperly made, and not unfrequently much impaired, if not rendered totally inert, by the injudicious and unskillful management of those unacquainted with pharmaceutical preparations. It is, therefore, of the highest consideration and importance to the public, and to the faculty, that there should be standard preparations of uniform strength and possessing the most advantageous properties for every passing event of interest or a more local description. Whatever efforts will at any time be made to grasp the fullest advantages of these means, and to augment them as circumstances may require
